LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCILMEMBER JOSE HUIZAR DTLA STREET CLOSURE COMMITTEE

BID NOTIFICATION

Councilmember Jose Huizar has formed the Downtown Street Closure Committee in response to the increasingly high volume of street closure requests that the City receives in the Downtown area. This committee is an advisory committee to the Council Office which meets monthly to evaluate significant street closure requests and to address the concerns of residents and businesses.

All applicants are required to notify the Business Improvement Districts in which their requested Street Closures will take place prior to presenting at Street Closure committee. Once notified with ample information regarding notification processes to both residents and commercial entities the BID will sign this form and return to applicant. It is the responsibility of the applicant to include this form as part of their complete event presentation packet to Street Closure Committee.
